LOCAL AFFAIRS.

State of Peace.
There will be a sale of pew seats in the 2nd Cong. Church (Rev. J. D. Emerson.) Wednesday evening Dec. 21st, commencing at 7 o'clock. The house having such large accommodations all who desire may be supplied. Pews may be obtained from $1.50 to $3.00. Those desiring choice pews should be present early in the evening.

Lecture in City Hall.
Maj. Gen. Kilpatrick of New Jersey and Minister to Chile will lecture in City Hall next Monday evening, Dec. 21st. Subject: "Sherman's March to the Sea." Lecture to commence at 10 minutes to 8. Doors open at 7. Reserved seats (50 cents) can be obtained of Mr. A. H. Hinchman, No. 91 Main St., Biddeford and of Hinchman's, Saco, where a plan of the Hall may be seen and seats selected. Evening tickets 25 cents.

High School.
The leaving-taking of Miss Stearns, the assistant teacher in the Biddeford High School, Wednesday 19th inst., was one to be remembered by her as evincing the respect of the entire school.

Her connection with this school has been of short duration; but of such a nature as to fully sustain her reputation gained elsewhere and to prove her worthy of the pleasing tokens of love with which she was presented by the school. It being made known to the students in the morning that at that time she would leave the school, her teachers, they immediately made up a purse of money with which were purchased some elegant illustrated books and a few smaller articles. After a few well selected words to the school by the Principal, Miss S., received the present from her hand with the desire that the donors be held in her remembrance. Miss Stearns goes from this place to fill the position of assistant in Waltham High School, Mass., at a considerably advanced salary.

Thirty-seven men were discharged from the civil Engineer's Department of the Navy Yard, owing to the cold weather closing up work.

The Methodist are making preparations for an enjoyable occasion at their dedication, which owing to disappointments may possibly be deferred to New Year's day.

Mr. Theodore Koon, captain of the watch at the Navy Yard, met with quite a serious accident on Sunday, by being thrown from his carriage and badly cut and bruised, while returning from the funeral of a relative.

"They that give to the poor to let them to the Lord." The generous people of this town will have the house and L. built for Mr. Acorn for the loss of his by fire, completed by Saturday next.
